December Birthstone

Turquoise

Turquoise is the birthstone for December and the traditional gift to commemorate the 5th and 11th years of marriage. Its colour is of course referred to as turquoise, but the hue can range widely from the familiar green-blue to a light sky-blue.

A gift of Turquoise represents friendship and luck.

Featured Artist for December 2011

Anne Yang

Anne was born in the scenic township of Atherton, surrounded by the lush rolling Tableland hills, rainforests, mountains, streams and lakes. With such a backdrop, it is not surprising that she developed an appreciation for the beauty of nature from an early age.

In 1999 Anne attended a TAFE drawing course and her journey into fine art began. Anne has received many awards and to further her development has attended workshops with some of Australia's leading landscape artists. Anne now paints in both pastel and oil from her home studio in Cooroy. She finds abundant inspiration to paint from her hinterland environment and relishes the beauty of both coast and country scenery. As a mother of four, Anne knows just how hectic life can be.

She seeks to instil into her paintings a sense of escape into nature's timeless tranquillity, inviting the viewer to contemplate the handwork of the eternal creator.

Anne's paintings will be exhibited in the Gold in Bold gallery through the Christmas and New Year period.
